CHRISTIAN CHURCH REVIVAL

In Madisonville Growing in Power as the Days go by

Space forbids us publishing all the good things that the public is receiving, in the Christian Church Revival in Madisonville, but we mention a few.

Evangelist Roy L. Brown pleaded with sinners Tuesday night, until two grown men came forward, and made their families complete in Christ. A bright young man from the High School stepped down to the front before a large audience, and gave himself to Christ. One of the best known young men in Madisonville started from the rear Sunday night and before an audience of more than a thousand publicly gave up the life of sin for the life of righteousness. Up to Wednesday morning there had been 31 additions.

The baptismal services are very sacred and impressive; all of the lights being turned off except those in the baptistry.

The revival is spreading to the colored districts. Evangelist Brown has been invited by prominent colored citizens to address an audience of colored men next Sunday at 3 P. M. in one of the colored churches. He has accepted a special musical composition which has been written in Pueblo Colorado, by Prof. T. D. Thomas, and sent here dedicated to Rev. S. M. Bernard and this revival. Prof. D. Emmett Snyder has rehearsed it and says that it is a beautiful solo, and that he will render it one evening soon.

The "Mothers' Memorial Service" and the "Heavenly Recognition Service" were especially fine. Next Sunday promises to be a great day at the Madisonville Christian Church. You are invited.

Dean's Regulets cure constipation without griping, nausea, or any weakening effect. Ask your druggists for them. 25c per box.
